

The Old Town Elk Grove Foundation is proud to present
The 22nd Annual Dickens Faire

Saturday, November 28, 2009

10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

“Rain or Shine”

No rain date or Refunds

The Old Town Elk Grove Foundation is making every effort to maximize the attendance at the fair. It is anticipated the day will be profitable for all. Last year’s attendance was estimated to be 12,000 – 15,000 people. Dickens Faire will receive extensive advertising and promotion in the local media as well as surrounding communities with the support of our sponsors. Attendance at Dickens Faire is FREE and open to the general public. It promises to be well attended and a day of FUN for all ages!

Elk Grove Dickens Faire is presented by the Old Town Elk Grove Foundation, a non-profit organization made up of local business owners and residents dedicated to preserving Old Town’s historic past while investing in its future.
